

MR. ROSE'S ARRIVAL.

We are informed by a gentleman from Baltimore that Mr. Rose has arrived at Norfolk in the Statira frigate.

The Knell.

Departed this life, on the 28th instant, after a painful illness of 16 days, JOHN GALE, Esquire, in the 47th year of his age. Mr. Gale was a delegate from Kent county, and was in the discharge of the important duties of legislation, when he was attacked with that illness which ended with his existence, during which he displayed the most Christian fortitude, and his patient suffering and resignation plainly evinced that he had full confidence the change would be a happy one to him, though painful to those who knew him.

Angels beheld him ripe for joys to come,
And call'd, by God's command, their brother home;
And tho' he dies and moulders in the tomb,
And sleeps in death, still shall his virtues bloom.
Altho' his body is dispos'd of grace,
The seeds of well spent days will grow apace;
Rest then, thou gentle spirit; rest in peace,
All jarring passions now for ever cease.
E'er long thy friends, who now thy fate deplore,
Will follow thee, and be beheld no more.
While Heav'n's best blessings all will rest on thee;
To every friend thy memory dear shall be,
And the young friend, that does this tribute pay,
E'er long must mingle with his parent clay.

In CHANCERY, December 29, 1807.

Thomas Gardiner against John Gardiner.
THE object of the bill in this cause filed is to obtain a decree for the conveyance of part of a tract of land called Collinwood, lying and being in Saint-Mary's county, which the defendant contracted to convey to the complainant. The bill states, that the whole purchase money hath been paid, and that the defendant hath removed out of the State of Maryland, and beyond the reach of the process of this court. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette, before the first day of February next, give notice to the absent defendant of this application, and of the substance and object of the bill, that he may be warned to appear here in person, or by a solicitor of this court, on or before the first day of June next, to shew cause, if any he hath, wherefore a decree should not be passed as prayed.

True copy,

Reg. Cor. Can.

NOTICE.

THE repeated trespasses committed on the lands of the subscriber, living on Hackett's Point, are constrained him to prohibit all persons from hunting thereon, with dog or gun, or making of fires along my shores, as I am determined to put the law in force against all offenders.

December 30, 1807.

Black Horse Tavern.

THE subscriber takes the liberty of informing his friends, and the public generally, that he has removed to the noted tavern, on the Baltimore road, known by the name of the Black Horse, where he is well provided with every thing in the public house for the accommodation of travellers, and hopes from his attention to merit the support of a generous public.

He also retails groceries, viz. best Cognac brandy, gin, common rum, and whisky, loaf and brown sugars, teas, coffee and chocolate, candles, soap, &c. with every other article in the grocery line, all of which will be sold low for cash, or exchanged for produce at the market price.

JOHN WELCH.

N. B. I forewarn all persons from hunting with their dog or gun on the Black Horse plantation, or in any manner passing through the said premises, other than the road directs; having already sustained considerable injury, I am determined to prosecute all offenders with the utmost rigour of the law.

December 23, 1807.

St. Mary's College.

Grand Lottery, Baltimore.

AUTHORISED by the general assembly of the State of Maryland, the scheme of which is the most brilliant ever offered to the citizens of the United States, containing besides a large number of other good prizes

- 1 prize of 30,000 dollars,
- 1 do. of 15,000 dollars,
- 3 do. of 10,000 dollars,
- 2 do. of 5,000 dollars,
- 8 do. of 1,500 dollars,
- 7 do. of 1,000 dollars,

Not two blanks to a prize, and the lowest prize is twelve dollars. The scheme contains only 21,500 tickets; 10,000 of which are actually sold to a company of gentlemen in New-York; to whom the managers have obligated themselves to commence the drawing in the city of Baltimore, On THURSDAY the 31st day of DECEMBER next, and to draw 500 tickets per day.

Tickets and shares are now selling in a variety of numbers and very rapidly, at TEN DOLLARS and a HALF each, for a short time, at

G. & R. WAITE'S.

Truly fortunate Lottery office, corner of Market and Charles streets Baltimore.

The grandeur of the scheme of the above lottery, together with an assurance from the managers that it will positively commence drawing on the 31st day of December next, have been a sufficient inducement for the subscribers to come to the city of Baltimore for the express purpose of facilitating the sale of the tickets.

G. & R. WAITE.

One of the above firm will personally attend the drawing daily, to take down the numbers correctly as will also one of their clerks.

The next New-York lottery will not commence drawing till April next, tickets of which lottery may be had at Waite's offices, No. 64 and No. 38 Maiden Lane New-York.

Distant adventurers accompanying their orders with bank notes, of any description to either of Waite's offices, in New-York or Baltimore, may have tickets and shares forwarded to any amount with the utmost punctuality, and the earliest advice sent them of their success. All prizes sold by G. and R. Waite, will be paid by them.

October 12, 1807.
BY HIS EXCELLENCY
ROBERT WRIGHT, Esquire,
GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS some nefarious villain did, on the eighteenth day of October, instant, attempt to assassinate judge James B. Robins, on his return from Caroline county court, near Denton, and did; from an ambush, fire a ball at him, which entered his right shoulder, and passed out below his right breast, and another ball which passed through the cape of his coat, and struck his ear: And whereas, there is reason to believe the said assassin is a certain John Whirlow, alias John Rigging, formerly committed to Worcester county goal by said judge Robins, to answer to a certain crime, and who, by two letters to said judge Robins, threatened to assassinate him; which said Whirlow, alias Rigging, was, on the day before the perpetration of said villainy, supposed to be in Denton, inquiring when said judge would return home: And whereas, it is the duty of the executive, in the execution of the laws, to endeavour to bring all malefactors to justice: I have therefore thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the council, offer five hundred dollars reward, to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring to justice the perpetrator of said offence, in lieu of the reward offered by William Potter, Esq. Given in council, at the city of Annapolis, under the seal of the State of Maryland, this 21st day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seven, and of the independence of the United States of America the thirty-second.

ROBERT WRIGHT.

By his Excellency's command,
NINIAN PINKNEY,

Clerk of the council.

Ordered, that the foregoing proclamation be published three times in each week, for the space of two weeks, successively, in the American and Federal Gazette at Baltimore, and the Star at Easton.

By order,
NINIAN PINKNEY.

To the Voters of Anne-Arundel county, and City of Annapolis.

GENTLEMEN,

FROM the promised support of many of my fellow-citizens I am encouraged to offer myself a candidate for the next SHERIFFALTY of this county; should I be honoured with your support on that occasion, you may rest assured, that every exertion on my part will be used to discharge the duties that will necessarily devolve on me with industry and fidelity.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obdt. servant,
SOLOMON GROVES.
